ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners
and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH

Parish Mission Statement

"What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life."

Pastor's Note

“AN HISTORIC EVENT”: THE PASSING OF ANNA MARIE (WALSH) COUGHLIN, A.D. 1910-2018.

On Friday, July 6th, A.D. 2018 Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church was filled with the extended family of Mrs. Anna Marie (Walsh) Coughlin, who died in her 108th year. As one of her relatives, parishioner Bob Brearley, said to me before the funeral Mass began, “This is an historic event.”

He was right. Anna Coughlin was the last living parishioner from the time of the new parish church's dedication as Mary Immaculate of Lourdes on Thanksgiving Day, November 24th, 1910. She was a new-born baby. As she liked to say in later life, “I was baptized with the bells.”

According to the custom of the time, when new church bells were blessed, they were “baptized”, and given names as children are given names at their christenings. There are three “baptized” bells in our parish church of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The largest bell, the tolling bell, is christened “Gabriel” for the Archangel who announced the birth of John the Baptist to his father Zachary and announced the Incarnation to the Virgin Mary at Nazareth. The second bell is christened “Elizabeth” for the mother of John the Baptist and Mary's kinswoman. The third bell, the “baby bell”, is christened “John the Baptist”. When Mary went to greet Elizabeth, at the sound of Mary's voice, Elizabeth felt her own baby leap for joy inside her womb. Filled with the Holy Ghost, she said to Mary:

Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. And whence is this to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

July 15th, A.D. 2018

Eighth Sunday after Pentecost / 15th Sunday of the Year
Mary Immaculate of Lourdes, Newton/Needham, Massachusetts

For behold as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in my ears, the infant in my womb leapt for joy. And blessed art thou that hast believed because those things shall be accomplished that were spoken to thee by the Lord (Luke 1:43-45).

The bells of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes are thus the “Saints of the Incarnation”—Gabriel, Elizabeth and John the Baptist.

Anna Coughlin lived a long and full life, and she enjoyed her memories of that long life into her years as a super-centenarian. Faithful to her Catholic religion, she died a daughter of the Church. Father John Sheridan, native-son of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes parish and friend of the family, preached her funeral Mass. At the Offertory of the Mass, the gifts for the altar were brought forward by several of her nine great-grandchildren.

Born into life on November 6th, 1910, she was born into eternal life on July 2nd, 2018. In the Old Calendar, July 2nd, is the Feast of the Visitation, when Mary comes to Elizabeth directly after having received the Annunciation of the Angel Gabriel. We may see it as a perfect divine touch for Anna who was baptized with the bells of the Saints of the Incarnation. As her casket was carried out to the street, “Gabriel” was tolling from the bell-tower, announcing to all the world Anna's birth to eternity.

(Fr. Higgins)

SCRIPTURE STUDY

COLLECTS OF THE ROMAN MISSAL SUNDAY, JULY 15th, 2018: OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL (Missale Romanum 1970)

For today's meditation on the Collects of the Roman Missal, we consider the Collect for the feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel (July 16). The following is the official ICEL English translation of this prayer in the Missale Romanum 1970:

"May the venerable intercession of the glorious Virgin Mary come to our aid, we pray, O Lord, so that, fortified by her protection, we may reach the mountain which is Christ. Who lives and reigns, etc. Amen."

This prayer fittingly acclaims Our Lady's intercession as "venerable." This is a clear homage to the centuries' old devotion of the Carmelite Order to Our Lady, and especially to the much-beloved sacramental of the Brown Scapular, worn by many Catholics world-wide. The Missal note in the CTS New Daily Missal explains this devotion succinctly: "Wearing the 'Brown Scapular', a symbol of the Carmelite habit, is a sign of trust in Mary's maternal help, especially at the hour of death."

This prayer also makes links between Our Lady's intercession for us in the journey of life on the one hand, and God's providence for the prophet Elijah in his wanderings, on the other (Elijah is one of the patrons of the Carmelite order, as the order was formed at Mt. Carmel in the twelfth century). Scripture relates two lonely and dangerous periods of clandestine wanderings of the prophet Elijah during a time of great national apostasy. The first places him near the Jordan river and in Sidon as he fled from the wicked King Ahab prior to the dramatic victory over the prophets of Baal on Mt. Carmel. The second recounts his escape to Mt. Sinai, once again fleeing for his life from the wicked Queen Jezebel immediately after this dramatic event (cf. 1 Kings 17-19).

In all these wanderings, God provided for him most mercifully: "And he arose, and ate and drank, and walked in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb [i.e., Sinai] the mount of God" (cf. 1 Kings 19:8, RSV). The Collect appears to link the fortifying intercession of Our Lady in our lives to the supernatural provision of food for Elijah in these journeys, especially the one to Mt. Sinai. The prophet Elijah is a fitting type for all Christians suffering for their witness to the truth of the faith, and sustained by grace during the pilgrimage of life. Just as Elijah was fortified by God for his trial, so too, we children of God are fortified by heavenly grace which comes to us through Mary, the Eucharist being the prime example.

Upon his arrival at Mt. Sinai, Elijah encounters God not in a burning bush like Moses, but in "a still small voice" (cf. 1 Kings 19:12, RSV). This tells us that he had a receptive posture of quiet, contemplative listening and prayer- very much like Our Lady at the Annunciation. The grace of God's provision for Elijah prepared him for his meeting with the mysterious and thrice-Holy God. Similarly, the grace of Our Lady's intercession for us always tends towards helping us to encounter her Son in the depths of our hearts (this is essentially what contemplative prayer is). She helps us to reach the true Mt. Sinai, "the mountain which is Christ" [We may note here that contemplative prayer is a distinct feature of Carmelite spirituality].

Indeed, contemplative prayer is truly the essence of Our Lady's own prayer: "Mary kept all these things, pondering them in her heart" (cf. Luke 2:19, RSV). The most powerful intercessory prayer there is- that of Our Lady- is rooted ultimately in her continual and faith-filled contemplation of the divine mystery of God's grace in Christ. May she help us to make such prayer- so full of content and faith- more integral to our daily lives and routines.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Psalm 47:10-11. 2 We have received Thy mercy, O God, in the midst of Thy temple. according to Thy name, O God, so also is Thy praise unto the ends of the earth: Thy right hand is full of justice. Ps. Great is the Lord, and exceedingly to be praised in the city of God, in His holy mountain V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT Grant us, we pray, Lord, in Thy goodness, the spirit to think and to do always what is right, so that we, who cannot exist without Thee, may be able to live according to Thy will. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISTLE: Romans 8:12-17. Brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh; for if you live according to the flesh, you shall die; but if by the Spirit you mortify the deeds of the flesh, you shall live. For whosoever are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For you have not received the spirit of bondage again in fear, but You have received the spirit of adoption of sons, whereby we cry: Abba (Father). For the Spirit Himself giveth testimony to our spirit, that we are the sons of God; and if sons, heirs also; heirs indeed of God, and joint heirs with Christ.

GRADUAL: Psalm 30, 3; 70, 1. Be Thou unto me a God, a protector and a place of refuge, to save me. V. In Thee, O God, have I hoped, let me never be confounded. ALLELUIA: Psalm 47, 2. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Great is the Lord, and exceedingly to be praised, in the city of our God, in His holy mountain. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Luke 16, 1-9. At that time, Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: "There was a certain rich man who had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods; and he called him, and said to him: 'How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship, for now thou canst be steward no longer.' And the steward said within himself: 'What shall I do, because my lord taketh away from me the stewardship? To dig I am not able: to beg I am ashamed. I know what I will do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.' Therefore calling together every one of his master's debtors, he said to the first: 'How much dost thou owe my lord?' But he said: 'A hundred barrels of oil.' And he said to him: 'Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.' Then he said to another: 'And how much dost thou owe?' Who said: 'A hundred quarters of wheat.' He said to him: 'Take thy bill, and write eighty.' And the lord commended the unjust steward, for as much as he had done wisely: for the children of this world are wiser in their generation than the children of light. And I say unto you: Make unto yourselves friends of the mammon of iniquity, that when you fail, they may receive you into everlasting dwellings."

OFFERTORY: Psalm 17: 28, 32. Thou wilt save the humble people, O Lord, and wilt bring down the eyes of the proud; for who is God but Thee, O Lord?

SECRET Receive, Lord, we pray, the offerings which we make to You, of what You Yourself have given us, so that by the power of Your grace these holy mysteries may sanctify our present life and bring us to everlasting joys. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: Psalm 33: 9. Taste and see that the Lord is sweet: blessed is the man that hopeth in Him.

POSTCOMMUNION: May this heavenly mystery, Lord, restore us both in soul and in body, so that we may feel within us the power of the sacrament which we celebrate. Through our Lord.
